What are those unintentional subliminal beliefs or attitudes that affect our understanding, actions and decisions in the workplace? Join Anitra Rivera, director of student diversity initiatives (SDI), as she discusses this timely topic. The mission of the SDI office fosters diversity and inclusion in the Missouri S&T community. Through programs and partnerships, the SDI mission expands outside of rural Missouri by being an advocate for diversity and inclusion for all individuals.